

DETAILS AND CONTACT

Dates: Saturday 24th July - Saturday 7th August 2010

Cost: £200

A limited number of bursaries are available for those in need. The cost does not include transport to and from the camp. Transport to and from the camp is the responsibility of parents, however, we will make every effort to coordinate arrangements between families. In previous years at least one leader has accompanied a group of children on the train from London to (and back from) the camp.

There's nothing better than a bonfire to round off a day with good friends.

If you have any questions, including enquiries about transport, please feel free to contact:

To reserve a place please complete and return the enclosed booking form. You will then be sent further details, including list of required clothing and equipment.

CHILDREN'S SUMMER CAMP WALES 2010

Saturday 24th July - Saturday 7th August 2010

For over 35 years, summer camps have been organised for children aged 9 - 16 from our parishes and communities around the UK. For a number of years it has been run on a site in south Wales at Dyffryn Ganol, near Crickhowell in the Brecon Beacons. It is an ideal location for a camp site; a small, flat field nestled in a valley between the mountains. Alongside the field runs a stream where the children can safely wash and play.

THE CAMP SITE

This is real camping! There are no buildings on the site and everyone sleeps in tents, with up to six people in each one. Two large marquees serve as the kitchen and dining hall, while another marquee holds the chapel where everyone gathers for prayers first thing in the morning and last thing at night. This is also where the Liturgy is celebrated on Sundays and on the feast of the Transfiguration.

A more idyllic camp setting you won't find.

Rain or shine, the fun never stops.

No camp would be complete without a fire around which to sing and talk.

CAMP ACTIVITIES

The camp is two weeks long and the days are filled with various activities, including the Blessing of the Camp, discussions on church life and faith, walks, Camp Olympics, Theme Day (Inventions in 2008, Books and Literature in 2009), football, volleyball and other games, arts and crafts, music, dancing, sketches and bonfires, food preparation and best of all... washing up!

Children can expect an action-packed week full of exciting activities.

CAMP PERSONNEL

The camp is run by a team of leaders (all of whom have attended the camps themselves from an early age), supported by Deacon Peter and Irina Scorer, and the camp's priest, Father Alexander Fostirooulos.

The 2009 Summer Camp was a huge success! And there's no doubt this year's camp will be just as memorable.
