Notes about services

Services are normally held on the 2nd, 4th and 5th Sunday at 11.30 am, and on the preceding Saturday at 6.00 pm, of every month. In addition, an evening Festal Vesperal Liturgy is normally celebrated at 6.30 pm on the eve of the Great Feasts when these occur on a weekday. Special mid-week services are also celebrated during Great Lent and throughout Holy Week. All services are celebrated in English, with some prayers in Church Slavonic, Greek, Romanian and French. There is normally an opportunity for people to make their confession after every evening service or before the Liturgy on Sundays, and by arrangement at other times during the week.

Annual Deanery Festival and Conference

Friday 26th to Monday 29th May 2017 on the theme of "Let's us attend! Attentiveness to the Word of God in prayer and everyday life", to be held at High Leigh Conference Centre, Hoddeston, Hertfordshire EN11 8SG. Further details are posted on the Deanery website www.exarchate.org.uk and can also be requested from Irina Gusarova answer7irina@googlemail.com or Carol Graves 020-8540 6571 csgraves@btinternet.com

Children's Summer Camp - Thursday 27th to Wednesday 9th August 2017

For children age 9 to 16 from our parishes and communities around the UK, held in the Brecon Beacons in South Wales. Further details from Father Alexander: fostiropoulos@clara.net or Deacon Peter Scorer: peterscorer@hotmail.com

The parish belongs to the worldwide Orthodox Church, being part of the Exarchate of Parishes of the Russian Tradition in Western Europe, within the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople, under the Episcopal care of Archbishop John of Charioupolis. Our sister parish in London, dedicated to the Feast of the Dormition of the Mother of God, also holds services at St Andrew's Church, Holborn, London EC4A 3AB. www.dormition.org.uk. Our parish is twinned with the Parish of the Holy Trinity in Paris, France. www.crypte.fr

Our local members represent a diversity of languages and cultures including American, Australian, British, Bulgarian, Canadian, Cypriot, Dutch, Finnish, French, Georgian, German, Greek, Irish, Japanese, Lebanese, Lithuanian, New Zealand, Polish, Romanian, Russian, Serbian, South African and Ukrainian. Members of all Christian and other faith communities are most welcome to attend our services and everyone is encouraged to bring and share light refreshments (finger food) after the Sunday Liturgy.
